Cross Extending Table by Matthew Hilton

Cross Extending Table by Matthew Hilton

The award-winning Cross Extending Table is a fine example of Matthew Hilton's innovative approach to wood furniture design and signature minimal aesthetic.

Practical and versatile, simple lines build to create a distinctive contemporary shaped base designed to offer ample leg room. The table top expands with a smooth and simple pull to allow for the addition of two extra leaves. The extension leaves can be stored in the concealed compartment under the table top when not in use.

Constructed from a solid wood base and a solid edge veneered top, the Cross Extending Table seats 8 to 12 people.

Winner of the ELLE Decoration Award for Best in Furniture 2006, the Homes & Gardens Classic Design Award in 2007 and the Design Guild Mark in 2008.

Kigumi Table by Nazanin Kamali

Kigumi Table by Nazanin Kamali

The Kigumi Table, designed by Nazanin Kamali, embodies the modern principles of design and accentuates a timeless look. It reflects Nazanin Kamali's conviction that a casual dining table needs to be simple, have a small footprint and be suitable for everyday use.

Lightweight and strong, the unique lines and shape of the base create a refined but simple aesthetic, making it the perfect centrepiece in your home.

The solid wood base is complemented by a veneered top with a chamfered edge, and a clear lacquer finish allows the natural warmth of the wood to come through.

With a sitting arrangement of 4-6 people around 1.2m tabletop, the Kigumi Table is a simple and elegant table, perfect table for small dining areas.

Lucent Tables by Matthew Hilton

Lucent Tables by Matthew Hilton

Joining the glass panels of this contemporary range at right angles creates an unusual, warm effect as the translucent panels overlay darkening the shades. The top and base panels have a curved edge, made from tempered glass which mean the tables are highly durable.

The structural partitions of the Lucent tables create a division inside, which can be used to display objects or store books and magazines. Using a classic material, such as tempered glass for a collection of tables, makes these handsome, yet delicate tables ideal for the home, or within hotels and bars.

Rene Sofa by Matthew Hilton

Rene Sofa by Matthew Hilton

The René Sofa was designed with simplicity in mind, a quiet piece of furniture that offers the user scope for their own self-expression.

Designed by Matthew Hilton who describes the shape as having a hint of Art Deco, with just the suggestion of the 1920s and 1930s, as well as a nod to early Roxy Music and Biba. The name René comes from René Lalique, the celebrated French jeweller and glass designer.

675 Chair by Robin Day

675 Chair by Robin Day

A design that has truly stood the test of time, the 675 chair is one of the most recognised of the Twentieth Century.

Originally created in 1952, the chair's most prominent feature is its curved walnut-veneered plywood back. Pioneering at the time, Robin Day overcame the difficulty of forming a single moulded plywood chair with armrests, by creating a fluid shape using a singular curve.

In close collaboration with the Robin and Lucienne Day Foundation, Case revisited the original design and faithfully reinstated, in the 2014 chair, the element and detail of the 1952 original.

Suited to both dining and home office environments.

Narin Chair by David Irwin

Narin Chair by David Irwin

Inspired by the constantly adapting nature of modern workshops, the Narin chair is both easy to collapse and move around, and can be stored in condensed stacks that occupy minimal space.

The elegant design features a smooth sweeping transition from the turned legs into the formed backrest, which also doubles as the mount for the pivot from where the back leg rotates.

The seat and back are formed from layered birch ply with a clear lacquer oak veneer and brass fixings. The fixings contained on the underside of the chair slide along the grooves within the back legs to present a graceful silhouette with clean flowing lines, which looks as good folded away for storage as it does when open and in use.

The Narin Chair received the Design Guild Mark Award and the Wood Award for Best Production Made in 2017.

Made in Thailand.

Oki-Nami Chair by Nazanin Kamali

Oki-Nami Chair by Nazanin Kamali

Part of the Oki-Nami range, this modern chair was originally designed for the Oki-Nami Japanese restaurant in Brighton, UK in 2008. The brief was to create contemporary tables, chairs and stools that reflected the craftsmanship, proportion and attention to detail found in Japanese creative industries. It also needed to be suitably comfortable and durable enough for its intended restaurant environment.

Nazanin Kamali designed the interior of the restaurant and worked with Case to create the tables, chairs and stools. The chair was shortlisted for the Restaurant and Bar Design Awards in 2009.

The signature wrap around back is naturally used as an armrest and remains supportive when sitting sideways.

Loku Chair by Shin Azumi

Loku Chair by Shin Azumi

Japanese designer Shin Azumi created the Loku Chair making good use of the efficient methods of advanced three dimensional (3D) veneer technology, which allows the seat to be moulded into more complex forms, making the visually and physically light shell comfortable, supportive and robust.

The moulded seat and back is made from a thin plywood veneer that can be shaped when heated into tight curves to stiffen the material.

The Loku Chair is available with a wood & metal or steel tube base. The chair was designed for both commercial and residential use providing variations to accommodate the different uses.

West Street Chair by Robin Day

West Street Chair by Robin Day

The West Street chair is a pared down design based on a simple cube shape. The result of a challenge that designer Robin Day took on to create a chair with the simplest form, the West Street chair started life as a personal project. Named after the home Robin and Lucienne Day moved to in 1999, the chair was taken on by Case as a simple desk or occasional chair.

“There’s this very vulnerable planet of ours with finite resources. Architects and designers have, I think, a fair responsibility for conserving energy and materials, and making things durable.” - Robin Day

The solid wood frame has two upholstered leather pads that act as the seat and the back with the back pad angled slightly for extra comfort.

Mantis Desk by Samuel Wilkinson

Mantis Desk by Samuel Wilkinson

British designer Samuel Wilkinson's idea was to create a desk that would work excellently in a compact home environment with a clean elegant aesthetic.

The flexible design comes with attachable accessories that help to keep your environment neat and tidy. The solid wood top has a removable plate that allows easy access to a storage tray hiding unsightly plugs and cables.

Other accessories include a small draw for a laptop or papers, a file holder and a back panel that can act as a note board or in an open space as a privacy screen. The table's four steel legs are also detachable, making the entire workplace easy to store or transport. The design lends itself to a home office or is ideal in tandem, back to back.

Sip Plant Pot by Ann Kristin Einarsen

Sip Plant Pot by Ann Kristin Einarsen

Sip is a two part self watering plant pot which plays with the shape of the classic terracotta form.

Minimally constructed, a nylon wick works as an extension of the plant roots and draws water from the reservoir which enables the plant to draw up just the water it needs.

The Sip Plant Pot makes it easy to keep plants fresh without spending too much time looking after them. A cleverly shaped glazed tray holds water and allows for easy watering.

Purlin Rug by Eleanor Pritchard

Purlin Rug by Eleanor Pritchard

Designed in London and handwoven in India the Purlin Rug features designer Eleanor Pritchard's intricate graphic patterns inspired by London's architectural skyline and draws its name from vernacular architectural roofing structures.

The Purlin design is a pattern of long narrow bars and alternating square blocks arranged in a half-drop repeat pattern resulting in a clean linear design with a pared back feel. With a colour palette based on warm and dark greys, sea greens and petrol blues, the Eleanor Pritchard rug collection beautifully encapsulates the metropolitan aesthetic of London.

Available in three sizes, two colours and the option of a hand-tufted or a flatweave design. Please note the runner is only available in flatweave.
