

BK11 | INDOOR OUTDOOR

BODIL KJÆR

CARL HANSEN & SØN

DESCRIPTION

The BK11 lounge chair was designed in 1959 by Danish architect Bodil Kjær as part of her architecturally inspired Indoor-Outdoor series. With a linear form influenced by Cubism, the chair's solid teak construction is designed to patinate beautifully with age and use.

DESIGNER

Bodil Kjær (born in 1932), as a furniture designer, views furniture construction from a purely technical perspective, interplayed with modern architecture and created for people. She always considers context and has collaborated with different professions in her desire to optimize physical settings.
