Eos Extending Table

Matthew Hilton

The Eos Extending Table highlights Matthew Hilton's focus on practical, modern design. This outdoor table extends smoothly with a simple pull, adding extra length to suit different dining needs. Made from powder-coated aluminium, it resists weather and rust for long-lasting use. Plastic floor guides make it easy to move, and it pairs perfectly with the Eos Side Chairs.

The Eos Collection offers a clean, lightweight design that's both comfortable and versatile. Its minimalist style works well in gardens, patios, and other outdoor spaces. Designed with summer dining in mind, the collection is named after Eos, the Greek goddess of dawn, reflecting its fresh and modern approach to outdoor furniture.

Designed by Matthew Hilton, the Eos Range was awarded the Design Guild Mark Award in 2016.

Made in China.
